

Lingui County of Guilin City will host 2011 International Wetlands Culture Festival. The festival will start on 5th November and end on 7th November.

During the festival there will be many events: opening ceremony, International Wetlands Summit Forum, local ethnic groups' parade and show and ending ceremony.

Lingui County is situated in the northeast of Guangxi and west of Guilin. The county has more than 2100 years' history. The Huixian Wetlands is in the county covering 12km square. It is known as the Kidney of Guilin.

