

Located some 129 kilometers north of the city of Guilin , is the largest county in the precinct of Guilin Prefecture. .The main tourist attractions in the county include: the Xiangshan Temple , Miaoming Pagoda, Zhenxiang Pagoda built in the Tang Dynasty, the stone frescoes, inscriptions and carvings done by Shi Tao, a famous painter of the Qing Dynasty as well as the mirror-like Heavenly Reservoir high up in the mountain. The Heavenly lake Hydro-power Station is located here. It has the highest water-source in Asia which is 1,074 meters above sea level. The Dragon Crag and the Yanjing Hot Spring are also here.

