

No matter what you are looking for in particular, whether back packing alone or with your buddy, Guilin can easily be the right place and your first choice for travel. Many busy young people dream about the simple life living in tune with nature in a close and comfortably sized village society. Guilin offers a variety of activities to make your adventure unforgettable, including thrilling hiking, biking, drifting, caving, climbing, camping and a variety of other outdoor explorations.

