

Guilin is ideal for family holidays; from toddlers to grandparents, everyone feels at home here. Looking for leisure and thrills? Our leisure-themed parks, natural reserves, mysterious national forest parks and numerous museums containing rich history are perfect for the whole family.

If exploration is the spice of your life, Guilin's hiking routes should fit your needs, with a huge range of attractions along the way. You can explore mysterious nature, and perhaps have the opportunity of walking along the scenic Li River route. Museums are great places to visit, allowing children and their parents to experience vivid pictures of the fascinating folk-customs of Guilin.

Families can enjoy Guilin's many outdoor itineraries, such as taking a walk along the riverside, relaxing your soul and body during your stay at Longsheng Central Hot Spring Hotel, and biking through the picturesque countryside. If you want to come inside and cool off, many of Guilin's museums have introduced interactive exhibits, designed with young visitors in mind. And let us not forget the famous amusement parks such as Merryland! They are all true delights for kids of all ages.
